Swami Peethadhipati, Sri Sahasara Yogishwara Swami Mahapeetham Bengaluru, Karnataka, IndiaSubject: Expression of Gratitude for the Generous Gift of "The Wanderer Who Owns the World"

Respected Sri Guruji.

On behalf of the A.S.S's Shri. V.R. Kustagi Memorial College of Commerce, I offer our deepest respect and heartfelt gratitude for your generous gift of two copies of your esteemed book, "The Wanderer Who Owns the World".Although our institution is dedicated primarily Commerce, we firmly believe that true education is not complete without wisdom, values, and an understanding of the deeper dimensions of human life.Your book is therefore a meaningful addition to our library. It will provide our students, faculty, and researchers an opportunity to reflect beyond technical knowledge and to engage with ideas of spirituality, self-awareness, wisdom, and the purpose of human life.In an age of rapid technological advancement, your contribution reminds us of the importance of nurturing not only intelligent minds, but also thoughtful and compassionate human beings. We are honored to preserve your work in our library and make it available to our academic community.We receive your generous gift with great humility and respect.
May your words continue to inspire young minds to seek knowledge with humility, live with purpose, and use their learning for the greater good of society.Thank you, Revered Swamiji, for this valuable contribution and for sharing your wisdom with our institution.

With deepest respect and reverence,
